An evening with David Wilkinson

At the Oriental Club, London

Talk and drinks reception, Tuesday 20 March 2018, 7:00 – 9:00pm

'Faith in the public square? Hawking, the Simpsons and Thought for the Day'

Join us for a special evening with Revd. Professor David Wilkinson, Principal of St Johns' College, Durham, and broadcaster on Radio 4's Thought for the Day. David Wilkinson will give a talk on 'Faith in the public square? Hawking, the Simpsons and Thought for the Day' which will be followed by an opportunity for questions and a discussion.

Please join us at 7.00pm at the splendid Oriental Club, Oxford Street, in London. The venue is by courtesy of Carl Hunter who is also kindly sponsoring this event. The evening will begin with a drinks and canapés reception at 7.00pm. David Wilkinson's talk will begin at 7.30pm. Please note that no tickets will be issued for this event. Please RSVP to Sandra Jones by completing and returning the form below:
