

A PANEL CONVERSATION ST JOHN'S WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP

SATURDAY 11 MARCH
10.30 - 13.00 ST JOHN'S COLLEGE

Jacqueline Sutton MBE

A St John's alumna, Jacqui is an experienced Aerospace industry professional with a career encompassing a variety of strategic and commercial roles for leading players in the market. Most recently, she held the position of Chief Customer Officer (CCO) at Rolls-Royce Civil Aerospace. Leading a multinational global team, she was responsible for the global customer base including airline operators, leasing companies and aircraft manufactures across the world. Since stepping down from her role as CCO, Jacqui has joined the Farnborough International Board as Non-Executive Director. She is also Non-Executive Director for the Women in Aviation and Aerospace Charter (WIAAC) which is working to build a more balanced and inclusive industry for women. Jacqui studied Russian and German at Durham University (1984-88) and holds Postgraduate Diploma in International Marketing. She is a Fellow of the Royal Society for arts, manufacturers and commerce (RSA) and was recently awarded an MBE for Services to the Economy. Jacqui is passionate about supporting and mentoring the next generation of leaders in the Aerospace industry and is a strong advocate for inclusion and diversity in the workplace.

Bishop Libby Lane

Libby is Bishop of Derby, an alumna of Cranmer Hall (1991-93) and the first woman to be appointed as a bishop by the Church of England. From January 2015 to 2019 she was the Bishop of Stockport, a suffragan bishop in the Diocese of Chester, before moving to her present role leading the Diocese of Derby. Libby studied theology at St Peter's College, Oxford. After studying for ordination at Cranmer, she was engaged for a number of years after ordination in teaching in Cranmer on gender and family life. Libby has served in the Dioceses of Blackburn, York and Chester in parochial, sector and chaplaincy posts. She has been in part-time, full-time and self-supporting ministry. In 2015 Libby was awarded an honorary Doctor of Divinity (DD) degree by the University of Wales Trinity Saint David. In 2016 was made an honorary fellow of St Peter's College, Oxford, and in 2017, she was awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws (LLD) by the University of Bath, and an honorary Doctor of Divinity (DDiv) by the University of Chester. Libby has been a Lord Spiritual in the House of Lords since July 2015, and is Lead Bishop for Sport, and for Young Offenders. She is Vice Chair of The Children's Society and Chair of The Derby Multi Faith Centre. Libby is passionate about supporting future generations of clergy training and has served on College Council and as Chair of Cranmer Committee since 2016, bringing wisdom and commitment to this important role.

Dr Monika Nangia

As Academic Registrar of Durham University, Monika has direct responsibility for leading the Academic Office, enabling departments and faculties to offer outstanding programmes of study, ensuring students have a seamless educational experience, and giving external stakeholders, including regulators, confidence in Durham's offer. She joined Durham in 2022 with more than 25 years of experience in Higher Education management and has held a number of senior positions in UK universities, most recently as Director of Student and Academic Experience at SOAS University of London. An English graduate, Monika has a PhD in Political Science and Government with a thesis on the dynamics of policy implementation in inclusive education. She is a passionate promoter of the role of women as leaders in higher education and champions the need for increased representation of people from black, Asian and other ethnic minority backgrounds in leadership positions.

All welcome. Sign up here or email
johns.alumni@durham.ac.uk

